Introduction

Since India's Vedic period to contemporary period, education was given much more attention by those Vedic philosophers, saints, rulers and ministers for performing their natural duty with a perfect results and success. Even an important decisions and conclusion was made in the Vedic time with the help of wider wisdom of the Vedic people for resolving and rectifying people done mistakes and problems. Education impacted their life and mind strongly and heavily in order to construct and coin a system with code of conducts and responsibilities for the systematic and synchronized administration. The birth of education is at each and every one's mind thinking about certain objective and phenomena for identifying and analyzing core issues and importance of the humanity. Education is a natural force and power has been given to human being by birth itself by the god which will be used by all when we have unavoidable needs and problems and it is known as a continuous outcomes of continuous thinking process and power of human beings, for which one will have to think about his meaning of presence, needs, ambitions and achievements then he or she may able to see the meaning of educational power.

Even the great ancient saint and philosopher Kautilya Chanakya has quoted that education is a most crucial element in human being life which could be seen either bad or good through their communication and leadership role in their life practicing place. Education is nothing else except trimming and diminishing of evils thought and behavior and promoting all types of righteous characters for the social harmony and coexistence with other comrades. In these highlighted patterns and path the Vice Chairman of Mrs Gayathri Ravichandran of The Erode College of Law has been as a dynamic and effervescent leader and educationalist towards practicing, propagating and performing an importance of Vedic literature's educational importance and significance for empowering each one of common people and student's community.

Since Mrs. Gayathiri Ravichadran madam has been assumed her role as a Vice Chairman have done and have been doing numerous roles towards polarizing and proliferating her aims and interest on the educational developmental activities and success. Her continuous dreams in this theme has got activated an entire college's staffs and students minds for functioning with her those quoted aim of finding and popularizing educational values at the this great widened civil societies.

She wants that everybody should be respected and treated evenly despite they have born at different places, equally all should have equal educational status without bias, for which continuous and gargantuan hard work of her invoking spirit of knowledge at all people's mind. Remarkably, even Doctorate completed professors also do not have a speedy, dynamic, past and accelerating academic performance and invention as she does possess because, she has been thinking

,visioning and observing to do what are the next steps of her college's growth and movement for strengthening an institution's role for producing a good teaching and students communities .

She started herself to initiate programs, events and academic work since her performances are matched to her law college institution's smart and steady growth. She is a lady of good ambition, goal, vision, sleepless work performer, continuous dreamer, loaded with stopples innovation and magnanimity. All these outstanding success have been applied in terms of promoting educational activities to create a better and bright society.

VC Role in Education

An Admirably, she does expect ever since everything excellently by applying her excellent hidden knowledge to make engage all workers at a constructive aspect for permitting all students and professors to identify their strength and weakness for empowering their future career.

Through every program, she motivates both students and professors, thereby they are able to trace out and diagnose their knowledge, potential and progress for improving further much more as necessary to his or her career purpose. Her meticulous and mammoth initiative has been surpassing by breaking all the barriers and promotes knowledge at the mind of both students and professors because, she has been focusing tirelessly on educational inventions and success for uplifting her college at the zenith of success .Two years ago her name was spoken modicum by some professor and student but in one years from 2025 to 2026 all pupils and professors are speaking and praising about her fabulous academic wisdoms .Her role and presence has been inevitable at her college functions and programs owing to her astonishing initiation and guidance beyond the pride of College Vice Chairman posting. As a baby is being cared by mother The Erode College Law is also being cared by VC madam by fostering and nurturing pupil's career and life through imparting a use full education.

At all programs, she has been working with a devil working nature by being at the role of academicians not at the role of College Owner because, she has been as an important pillar of ECL college development by believing her own capacity and skills not expecting her defendant's supports. In order to make success each and every program her role is at an epicenter and important for avoiding any delay and procrastination from her defendants. Very often she had been looked and seen by all as an academician than owner of this college because of her vibrant and vibrative leadership and field works.

Sleepless Work

It is an immense pleasure and happiness to mention some one's sleepless and dutiful work at any function's success and arrangements but it is a too much and huge happiness to say and quote down about the hard, sincere and diligent work of our College VC madam at all functions success and victory. She became subject and owner of all proud and appreciations owing to her invincible role and dedications at all programs success. An entire college had observed that her majestic and matrix involvement has projected her image as a glorious and glorified academic leader and work planner. She has unbridled enthusiasm and energy in her life which has been shown at educational improvements for the Sack of people's congenial growth and good life.

Her intellectual works over the day and night has brought all people's attentions as to applaud and appreciate much more as never before in the field of managing human resource and conducting academic works. She has aptitude of perceiving and observing properly everything to finish successfully without any blunder. Always she does seem as a role model to all through her massive work engagements and lady of model of work execution. It is true psychologically that instance and examples are drawn from other's peculiar and pretty characters, in this case she has been source and examples of all positive personalities.

Energy Devotion

At every program of The Erode College of law, VC madam has delivered huge energy on beginning session, middle of the session and end of the session. She nicely orating to the crowd and participants to make hurray and happiness without boring. It has been known as one of the great art of one that was offered by the god and used nicely at right occasion. Using stentorian voice she perfectly attracts the crowd to make them observe and watch all events without noisy. According to perceptions of the volunteers and participants, VC madam has irreducible mega walking, running and speaking stamina to accomplish all her mind generating interest and goals towards educational development.

One year before her potential power was at 0 to 1 but in this year, 2025 her potential rate and growth is reached at 100 because of day and night dreaming, working and thinking about students welfare and nation's growth through a perfect education imparting. She will be actively engaged at all events without tired and with a curiosity of gaining and earning good will and rapport from the public and students.

Educational success comes and goes from a fantastic imagination and visualization, which gives all types of inputs and stamina to write and speak, is known as a good education. Nothing power will come to some one unless and otherwise someone think about to do positively, here positive energy is seen through a positive work and negative work is seen through a negative work but VC madam has been looked by all others positively since she has positive proclivity and aptitude .She was witnessed and proved by her surplus and sustainable energy through all academic functions and programs. It is a peculiar to address about peculiar mannerism because, she will enquiry about the status of assigned work.

- She shall care about everything that is needed to a program
- She will discuss with her subordinates to know work status
- She will arrange swiftly all needed items to a program without delay
- She will use frequently Kongu region and Mandalam uttering and practicing pleasing respecting words
